Declaration of Product Compliance for United States

To Whom It May Concern:

We acknowledge receipt of your request for information with respect to our obligations as a supplier of products regulated in the United States, and, as of the date hereof, certify compliance as set forth below.

Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act (CPSIA)

We certify, to the best of our knowledge, that in-scope products and materials produced by Cotopaxi under the brand name Cotopaxi will materially comply with the following requirements under the CPSIA:

Flammability of Apparel and Accessories – 16 CFR 1610 and 16 CFR 1611
Lead in Children’s Products = CPSIA Section 101, 16 CFR 303

California Proposition 65

We certify that, to the best of our knowledge, the products manufactured by Cotopaxi under the brand name Cotopaxi materially comply with California Proposition 65.

To our knowledge, we currently do not have any products that require a Proposition 65 warning label under the updated Article 6 requirements. We understand our obligation to notify accounts if products require a Proposition 65 warning label and will do so in the future if that situation occurs.

PFAS

Additional information regarding Cotopaxi’s compliance with PFAS requirements and our sustainability initiatives can be found here. Cotopaxi’s PFAS FAQs:

State Chemical Reporting Laws

As of the date hereof, California, Washington, Maine, Vermont, and Oregon require reporting when certain chemicals are found in children’s products.

We certify that, to the best of our knowledge, the children's products manufactured by Cotopaxi comply with reporting requirements for children's products in these states.

If you are interested in additional information about our restricted substances policy, please reference Cotopaxi's publicly available Restricted Substances List (RSL) in the documents section of Cotopaxi's web page –
